2. Following the receipt of any complaints submitted hereunder, the Audit Committee will investigate each matter so reported and take corrective and disciplinary actions, if appropriate, which may include, alone or in combination, a warning or letter of reprimand, demotion, loss of merit increase, bonus or stock options, suspension without pay or termination of employment.

4. The Audit Committee shall retain as a part of the records of the Audit Committee any such complaints or concerns for a period of no less than seven (7) years.

Protection

This policy protects:

1. any employee who legitimately and in good faith discloses an alleged violation of the securities laws, the laws regarding fraud, the rules or regulations of the Securities Regulators and the Exchange, or any provision of law relating to fraud against shareholders to a regulatory or law enforcement agency, any person with supervisory authority over the employee, or any other person working for the Company who has the authority to investigate, discover or terminate conduct prohibited by this policy;
2. any employee who legitimately and in good faith files, causes to be filed, testifies, participates in, or otherwise assists in a proceeding filed under the securities laws, the laws regarding fraud, the rules or regulations of the Securities Regulators, or any provision of federal, state or provincial law pertaining to fraud against shareholders;
3. any employee who legitimately and in good faith provides to a law enforcement officer any truthful information relating to the commission or possible commission of any criminal offence; or
4. any employee who in good faith submits any complaint to the Audit Committee, regarding financial statements disclosures, accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or violations to the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics in accordance with the procedures set out above.

If an employee legitimately and in good faith engages in any of the activities listed above, the Company will not discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against them in the terms or conditions of employment because of that activity. However, since such allegation of impropriety may result in serious personal repercussions for the target person or entity, the employee making the allegation of impropriety should have reasonable probable grounds before reporting such impropriety and should undertake such reporting in good faith, for the best interests of the Company and not for personal gain or motivation.

The Board of Directors has adopted the following procedures:

1. Any employee who legitimately and in good faith believes that they have been the subject of prohibited discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation or is aware of any conduct which may be prohibited by this policy is strongly encouraged to report immediately the facts forming the basis of that belief or knowledge to their supervisor, to the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairperson of the Audit Committee of the Company. Any employee who receives such a complaint or witnesses any conduct which they legitimately and in good faith believe may be prohibited by this policy must immediately notify their supervisor and the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairperson of the Audit Committee.
2. Upon receiving a complaint, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairperson of the Audit Committee will promptly conduct or mandate any officer of the Company or any other person to conduct a thorough investigation. It is the obligation of all employees to cooperate in such investigation. Those responsible for the investigation will maintain the confidentiality of the allegations of the complaint and the identity of the persons involved, subject to the need to conduct a full and impartial investigation, remedy any violations of the Company's policies, or monitor compliance with or administer the Company's policies.
3. The investigation generally will include, but will not be limited to, discussion with the complaining employee (unless the complaint was submitted on an anonymous basis), the party against whom allegations have been made, and witnesses, if appropriate.
4. In the event that an investigation establishes that an employee has engaged in conduct or actions constituting discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation in violation of this policy, the Company will take immediate and appropriate corrective action up to and including termination of that employee's employment.
5. In the event that the investigation reveals that the complaint was frivolously made or undertaken for improper motives or made in bad faith or without a reasonable basis, that complainant's supervisor will take whatever disciplinary action may be appropriate in the circumstances.
